THUESDAY EVENING, JANUARY 20.

LOCAL NEWS.

For this district, southeast shifting to coller northwesterly winds, rain or snow, followed by fair weather.

PERSONALS.—Mrs. C. E. Stuart gave a delightful "drive whist" party at her residence on Washington street last night. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schwarz bave gone to Philadelphia on a visit to relatives in that city.

The Alexandria Musical Association last night gave a delightful hop to their lady friends at Sarepta Hall.

Mr. Norfolk Kerby, who left here last fall with the Kitty Rhoades dramatic company, it is said, has met with decided success, and at the entertainment given by that company in Burlington a few nights since, he was twice called before the curtain.

RATEROAD ITEMS.—The Richmond Terminal directors, in New York, yesterday, finally agreed to all the details of the pur-finally agreed to all the details of the purchase of the control of the East Tennessee, and a trust deed will be executed to-day.

The Norfolk and Western directors, it is said, have concluded to build the proposed extension from Bristol to a junction with the Erlanger system, so as to make that road independent of the East Tennessee. President Kimball, of the Norfolk and Western, states that engineers will be Western, states that engineers will be placed in the field within a few days, and the line pushed to completion with the ut-

WEDDING .- A large crowd assembled at the Methodist Protestant Church, last night, to witness the marriage of Mr. Wm. H. Lyles to Miss Fannie Deeton, both of this Lyles to Miss Fannie Deeton, both of this city. The bride was very handsomely attired in white albatross, en train, and was attended by Misses Rosie Boyd, Celie Murdoch, Annie Lyles and Mary Lyles. The groomsmen were Messrs. N. S. Greenaway, H. M. Hantzmon, Zoro Hill and S. H. Devaughn. The ceremony was performed by Fay S. J. Smith, after which a recention was Rev. S. J. Smith, after which a reception was held at the residence of the bride and groom, on north Pitt street.

GONE TO PIECES —A letter received at this office this morning from Mr. W. P. Smith, of Riverside, Charles county, Md., says that the schooner Bayard Haines, of Tappahannock, which sank, on the Sth in-start, off Tolson's wharf, in Nanjemoy reach, while on her way to Washington, loaded with oysters, has gone to pieces. The schooner was commanded by Capt. J. H. Bailey, of Westmoreland county, and the particulars of her being cut through by the ice have heretofore been published in the GAZETTE.

VOLUNTARY MANSLAUGHTER.-The case of Charles A. Newton, for killing Charles Benedum at Purcellville on the 31st of last Benedum at Purcellville on the 31st of last August, which has occupied the Circuit Court of Loudoun for the past two days, was given to the jury on Tuesday evening, and they brought in a verdict yesterday morning of voluntary manslaughter, and fixed his term of imprisonment in the penitentiary at three years and six months. A motion for a new trial was averagled motion for a new trial was overruled.

LAYING NEW RAILS .- The Londonn Mir-ror says: "The work of laying the new steel rails on this end of the W., O. & W.R. R. was begun last week. The start was made at Tuscarora bridge and the rails are now laid up to, and beyond, this town. The new metal has been on hand ready to be laid for some time, but the work, owing to the weather, was not begun. We under-stand now, however, that it will be pushed forward until all the new rails are in place.

o'clock the glass in the front door of Mr. B. Barton's jeweiry store on King street, near Royal, was broken by three suspicious looking men who had been seen loafing about the premises. It is not known whether the breaking was accidental or whether the men intended returning later and robbing the store. Maj. Geo. Duffey discovered the broken glass, and had the door boarded up till the glass could be replaced.

FERRY ROUTE.-The District of Columbia Commissioners vesterday authorized Joseph Passeno to establish a ferry route at the Aqueduct bridge between Georgetown and the Virginia shore. The following are the conditions imposed: "That he will not charge more than the former charges by the Aqueduct Bridge Company; that he take out the requisite United States license and that the police shall have due supervision in the interest of public safety."

Young Men's Christian Association. All members of the Young Men's Christian Association of this city are requested to meet at the Trinity M. E. Church to night at 8:30, also any men who are interested in the movement on foot to employ a general secretary and secure suitable rooms for the association. Mr. H. O. Williams, State secretary, will be present and wishes to see every member.

BENEFIT RECEIVED .- Mr. J. B. Rust, fireman on the V. M. railway, who, in the fall of 1885, was injured by jumping from his engine which ran into the rear of a train at Pope's Head Bridge, No. 4, near Clifton, has received from the treasury of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, of which association he is a member, the sum of $1,500 as his benefit.

APPRAISING PROPERTY .- Mr. Frank Hume, administrator, and Mr. S. G. Brent his attorney, left here this morning with Messrs. S. H. Lunt, W. H. Breen and T. Ballenger, to appraise the real and personal property of the late Peter Fegan, in Fairfax county. In this property is included the Arlington distillery, its contents, etc.

BITTEN BY A DOG.—A little daughter of Captain John Hayden, of the First ward, was severely bitten in several places by a ferocious dog, while on her way to school Tuesday morning. The brute was owned by a colored man named Green, living in the southern end of this city, and was this morning killed.

SUIT .- The general term of the Washington court was occupied yesterday with the case of the Alexandria Canal, Railroad and Bridge Company vs. the District of Columbia, an injunction to restrain the collection of taxes on the old aqueduct bridge. The case was argued by Gen. Wells and Mr. Riddle, but not concluded.

PROPERTY SALE .- Mr. J. T. Hill has sold to Mrs. Jane E. Jennings a house and lot on the east side of Henry street, between

King and Cameron, for $300 cash. It is to be hoped there will be no lack of interest in purchasing tickets for the parlor entertainment at No. 16 S. Fairfax street, Tuesday evening, January 25, at 8 o'clock, as the proceeds are to be used for repairing Lee street chapel, making it a comfortable place to held religious services in behalf of those who manifest a desire for a place of Worship in that portion of the city.

The Cluverius Tragedy.

The excitement over the Richmond trage dy is intensifying in this section. The vic-A marriage license was i-sued in this city to day to Mr. Charles Zimmerman and Miss Louise Heenstein, who are to be married on which the control of the cont persons believe he was innocent; a small Sparks from a locemotive yesterday set the to the dry grass on the meadow lend of Mr. D. G. Watkins, near this city, and fafe. But most all, so far as I have seen and heard, agree that he had not a fair trial, and ought not to have been hung without it. Many feel like a great calamity had be fallen the State and its people, that the Tribune of the people has failed of his functions, and a mental resolution has gone forth declaring that a civilian and Statesman and not a military chieftain, shall rule over them in future. Fauquier Co., Va., Jan. 19th, 1887.

Senator Mahone being interviewed with regard to the proposed sale of the Southern Telegraph Company, which is now in the hands of a receiver, said he was at one time a large owner of stock in the company, but he had disposed of his entire interest in it and has not now a cent invested in it. He said further, that he was not aware that it had been advertised for sale and he did not had been advertised for sale and he did not know who is likely to become the purchaser, although he had his own impressions on that subject, which he did not care to divulge
